Turin, June 2, N. S.

THE two Armies continue ſtill in the ſame Poſture, and by the Accounts from the French Camp, it appears that the Imperialiſts had not yet made any Motion towards Parma. The Report of the Finaleſe having revolted againſt the Republick of Genoa is confirmed, and that the Inhabitants throughout the whole Marquiſate of Final had ſet up a Standard with the Arms of France, Spain, and Sardenia.

Hambourg, June 15, N. S. The Daniſh Court returned on the 12th to Altona, accompanied by the Margravine, who had been at Aurich to ſee her Daughter, and aſſiſt at the Marriage of the Hereditary Prince of Oſtfriſe with the Princeſs of Bareith; the Celebration whereof has concluded with a Mourning, occaſioned by the Death of the reigning Prince. M. Brackel, the Ruſſian Miniſter, received Advice by a Staffette on the 11th, that the French Ships were returned from Dantzick into the Road of Copenhagen, and had brought with them a Ruſſian Frigate of 32 Guns, and three Merchant Ships of other Nations, taken about the Height of Pillau, laden with Ammunition for the Ruſſian Camp. Upon this Incident, he preſented a Memorial Yeſterday to the Council, repreſenting it as an Act of Hoſtility contrary to the Reſervation which the King of Denmark made in Favour of his Allies, when he allowed the French the Uſe of his Ports; and therefore reclaiming his Daniſh Majeſty's Aſſiſtance againſt them as Enemies and Aggreſſors. The Court has returned no Anſwer yet, but an extraordinary Council was held in the Afternoon, at the Concluſion of which a Courier was diſpatch'd to Copenhagen. The three Merchant Ships, one of which is Engliſh, having been unladen, were immediately releaſed. Theſe Ships bring Advice, that the Ruſſian Squadron, conſiſting of about 20 Sail of different Sorts, is actually before the Mouth of the Viſtula. The Emperor having granted a Neutrality to this Town in Favour of their Trade, they are now raiſing the Contributions with all Speed for the Service of his Imperial Majeſty and the Empire.

Hague, June 18, N. S. The States of Holland have this Day reſumed their Aſſembly. By Letters from the Rhine which arrived here Yeſterday we have Advice, that the Duke of Berwick was killed the 12th by a Cannon Ball in the Trenches before Philipsbourg. The ſame Letters add, that the Garriſon having opened the Sluices, which overflowing the Trenches, 600 French had been drowned therein; and that Prince Eugene deſigned to paſs the Neckar as Monday laſt. The Hereditary Prince of Oſtfriſe has notified to the States his Son's Marriage with a Princeſs of Culmbach Bareith.

Kenſington, June 11.

Their Majeſties and the Royal Family returned hither Yeſterday from Richmond.

This Day being the Anniverſary of His Majeſty's Succeſſion to the Crown, there was a numerous and ſplendid Appearance at Court of the Nobility, Foreign Miniſters, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, to compliment their Majeſties on that happy Occaſion.
